Purity

"Purity is the truth of Soul dwelling in God. It calls for the highest in man. If you look for the good in those around you, you bring out the good within them. Never wish for others what you do not want for yourself. By seeing the good in your neighbor, you are bringing out the good in yourself.

"Three practices are key to spiritual purity:

- "First, chant the sacred names of God; hold them constantly in your heart.
- "Second, do everything in the name of God, the Sugmad.
- "And last, love God with all your passion, and serve your fellow man with divine affection.
- "You will see the eyes of the Mahanta shining in every living being."

—Harold Klemp, ECKopedia: The ECKANKAR Lexicon, pp. 222-223

“Those of you who give to ECK get something back from the ECK that is priceless. It’s an opportunity, and the gifts that come back to you spiritually – if you will accept and receive them – will be more than any gift, any prize, any treasure you could receive in any material sense.”
